

CHIEF INVESTMENT OFFICER

The Alaska Industrial Development and Export Authority (AIDEA), a public corporation of the State of Alaska, is recruiting for a Chief Investment Officer.

The Chief Investment Officer (CIO) reports directly to the CEO/Executive Director of AIDEA and is responsible for overseeing the Authority's investment decisions for development projects. This position will take a lead role in negotiations and deal structuring with project developers, governmental entities, and investment partners. This position will provide oversight for AIDEA's short-term and long-term project investment plans, recommend project investments and oversee a team of professionals who are responsible for managing AIDEA's assets.

This position requires a minimum of 15 years of relevant executive/senior management experience, including a strong knowledge of Alaska's core industries including Oil and Gas, Mining, Tourism, and Seafood; a demonstrated track record of performance in deal execution; the ability to lead multi-functional teams comprised of AIDEA staff, legal counsel, financial advisors, and management consultants; a working knowledge of AIDEA's assets; excellent verbal and written communication skills; excellent leadership skills; and the ability to juggle multiple projects.

Bachelor's degree from an accredited institution in business administration, economics, finance, or engineering required. Juris Doctor with an emphasis on corporate law or a Master's degree with an emphasis on finance/economics is strongly preferred.

This position will remain open until filled and is located in Anchorage.

Send application and/or resume to Human Resources, AIDEA, 813 W. Northern Lights Blvd., Anchorage, AK 99503, by fax to (907) 771-3946, or by email to hr@aidea.org.

The state of Alaska is an EEO/ADA employer. Individuals requiring accommodations should call 1-800-587-0430 or 465-4095 in Juneau or (907) 465-3412 (TTY).